

Where I'm From

I am from the mountains
where my people play in the misty woods.

I am horseback riding
and hunting
with thrill.

Beneath my bed a jungle of novels,
especially, Mother.

When in my room,
my brothers, sister, and I
have fun
in the palace.

I hear sounds of clay
being smashed together
with laughter and joy.

You are wise to me.
When you help me along,
you make me smile.
